Short description of the company and motivation (3000 characters)

Provide information that covers the following points:

- Main features and characteristics of your company, apart from those expressed above.
- Advantages(s) offered by your company and why it should be selected by potential business partners.
- Explain why it makes you a good business partner: avoid generalities (e.g. reasonable prices, high quality staff, unique, innovative, etc.), be specific (e.g. quantifications, certification, past international successes etc.).
- Describe past international experience; products; services; field of activity; applications, competitive advantages and type of co-operation sought.
- Reasons for you participating in the Mobilise SME programme.
- How your stay abroad could help you to develop your business, product, etc.

Show that your company matches with the kind of company you aim to collaborate with and that you have experience in your field of expertise.

What type of business partner are you looking for? (2000 characters)

Provide information about the type and the role of the partner sought. Insert detailed information and this will allow prospective partners to be fully aware of your needs and expectations.

The field should address the following information:

- The type of partner sought (industry, academic, business etc.).
- The tasks and activities you would like to be performed by the partner sought.
